

ACCELERATED LITERACY
PRACTITIONERS' ASSOCIATION AUSTRALIA

SCAFFOLDING ACADEMIC LANGUAGE SYMPOSIUM, Adelaide 2018

Following from their research grant with the Primary English Teachers' Association of Australia, and the PETAA teacher book Teaching with Intent, ALPAA members Helen Harper and Bronwyn Parkin will work with Accelerated Literacy practitioners to make the links between AL scaffolding practices and 'Scaffolding Academic Language'.

Saturday 29th September 2018, 9am-3:00pm

PROGRAM

Session 1

Academic language: what the Australian curriculum expects

Session 2

A new teaching and learning sequence that focuses on scaffolding language across the curriculum

Session 3

Scaffolding strategies to support student control of academic language across the curriculum

Morning tea and lunch provided.

Certificates of attendance available on request.

VENUE

Cowandilla Primary School, 21 Jenkins St Cowandilla, South Australia 5033

PRESENTERS

Dr Bronwyn Parkin
Adjunct lecturer in Linguistics,
University of Adelaide,
Literacy consultant

Dr Helen Harper
Senior lecturer in Education,
University of New England.

SCHOLARSHIPS

9 scholarships (4 registration only and 5 registration plus travel subsidies) are available to ALPAA members who would like to attend this symposium and (optional) one day of the Australian Systemic Functional Linguistics (ASLA) conference to be held in Adelaide the same week. Details at www.alpaa.com.au.

REGISTRATIONS

Fill out attached form and email to alpractitioners@gmail.com

The symposium is free for ALPAA members

(Registration is required, and no-shows will be invoiced $120)

2018 Symposium registration

Scaffolding academic language

Saturday 29th September 2018 9am – 3pm
Cowandilla Primary School, 21 Jenkins St Cowandilla, SA

Name
School (if applicable)
Email
Address
Phone number
Emergency contact	Name: Phone number:
Dietary requirements
I need a certificate of attendance
I understand that the symposium is free of charge, and non-attendance without a medical certificate will incur a payment of $120.
Signature:

Please email this form to alpractitioners@gmail.com